Material Handling Charges

Material handling charges are based on show site requirements and may be incurred even if you do not request material handling or obtain a material handling estimate. Visit the Material Handling Estimator to get an estimate of what your material handling charges might be. All charges are based on the total inbound weight of the shipment.

Estimates

You will not be charged for these items now. Charges will be assessed at the time the service is provided and may differ from your estimate based on actual hours / services rendered.
