Exhibitor: Reliable Automatic Sprinkler CO
 Booth Size: 20 x 30
 Show Dates: 9/8/2023 - 9/9/2023
 Location: Orlando, FL

SPECIAL NOTES:

This estimate is based on information and labor requirements furnished by AMPM Inc and is for budgetary purposes only. Once installation plans and installation and dismantle dates and times are confirmed, an adjustment in pricing may be required. We have used advance discount labor rates to calculate approximate labor costs. If the order is submitted after the deadline date of Monday 8/14/23, higher labor rates will be applicable and an adjustment in pricing will be required. This estimate assumes all labor can be performed as noted. Deviation from this assumption will require an adjustment to this estimate. All labor hours and any required materials will be invoiced. This city has 2-hour minimums.

Please Note Thank you for the opportunity to present this estimate. This estimate is for BUDGETARY PURPOSES only. Upon completion of the job, you will receive time and materials invoices from Sho-Link. All labor hours and any required materials and taxes will be on the final invoice. This estimate is valid for thirty days from the date issued.

DISCLAIMER: This estimate does not allow for any of the following: 1) Delay with electrical, networking, or telephone lines; 2) Drayage; 3) Freight delivery delays; 4) Delay in return of empty freight; 5) Booth reconfiguration; 6) Cutting electrical lines into padding; 7) Graphics; 8) Audio visual; 9) Removal of plastic carpet coverings; 10) Drayage charges; 11) Decorator, rigging, and/or electrician labor or delays the result thereof; 12) Related trades or materials unless listed; 13) Show services; 14) Handling of any client product(s), literature, or machines; 15) Any allowances for anything beyond our control or natural disasters; 16) Applicable fees, petroleum surcharges and/or sales tax; 17) Ordering of any carpet; 18) Ordering of any rigging labor, and/or 19) Cost increases due to travel reservations being completed waiting on approval.

SPECIAL NOTE ABOUT LABOR RATES: We have used either show labor rates or generic labor rates to figure the estimate or sales order cost, unless otherwise specified. If you have questions regarding this, please contact us. Once installation drawings and installation and dismantle dates are available an adjustment in pricing may be required. When there is an advance or discount show rate as outlined in the show kit, these will be used for estimating purposes; however if the order is not submitted by the discount/advance deadline date, regular show rates will be applicable and an adjustment in pricing will be required. Thank you again for allowing us to be of assistance.
